Accountability Questions

- Did you spend at least 5 minutes a day – at least 5 days last week reading/hearing the Bible?
- Did you share a God story with someone this week?
- Did you spend time alone with God this week?
- What is the Holy Spirit is saying to you?
- Are you giving as God has asked you give?
- When did you last invite someone to church with you?

Job 2 <sup>8</sup>Job scraped his skin with a piece of broken pottery as he sat among the ashes. <sup>9</sup>His wife said to him, “Are you still trying to maintain your integrity? Curse God and die.”

<sup>10</sup> But Job replied, “You talk like a foolish woman. Should we accept only good things from the hand of God and never anything bad?” So in all this, Job said nothing wrong.

Job 3 <sup>1</sup> At last Job spoke, and he cursed the day of his birth. <sup>2</sup> He said: <sup>3</sup> “Let the day of my birth be erased, and the night I was conceived. <sup>4</sup> Let that day be turned to darkness. Let it be lost even to God on high, and let no light shine on it. <sup>5</sup> Let the darkness and utter gloom claim that day for its own. Let a black cloud overshadow it, and let the darkness terrify it. <sup>6</sup> Let that night be blotted off the calendar, never again to be counted among the days of the year, never again to appear among the months. <sup>7</sup> Let that night be childless. Let it have no joy.

25 What I always feared has happened to me. What I dreaded has come true. 26 I have no peace, no quietness. I have no rest; only trouble comes.”

Job 38 <sup>1</sup>Then the Lord answered Job from the whirlwind:
<sup>2</sup> “Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorant words? <sup>3</sup> Brace yourself like a man, because I have some questions for you, and you must answer them. <sup>4</sup> “Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Tell me, if you know so much. <sup>5</sup> Who determined its dimensions and stretched out the surveying line? <sup>6</sup> What supports its foundations, and who laid its cornerstone <sup>7</sup> as the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy? <sup>8</sup> “Who kept the sea inside its boundaries as it burst from the womb,<sup>9</sup> and as I clothed it with clouds and wrapped it in thick darkness? <sup>10</sup> For I locked it behind barred gates, limiting its shores.<sup>11</sup> I said, ‘This far and no farther will you come. Here your proud waves must stop!’

<sup>12</sup>“Have you ever commanded the morning to appear and caused the dawn to rise in the east? <sup>13</sup>Have you made daylight spread to the ends of the earth, to bring an end to the night’s wickedness? <sup>14</sup>As the light approaches, the earth takes shape like clay pressed beneath a seal; it is robed in brilliant colors. <sup>15</sup>The light disturbs the wicked and stops the arm that is raised in violence.

<sup>16</sup>“Have you explored the springs from which the seas come? Have you explored their depths? <sup>17</sup>Do you know where the gates of death are located? Have you seen the gates of utter gloom? <sup>18</sup> Do you realize the extent of the earth? Tell me about it if you know! <sup>19</sup> “Where does light come from, and where does darkness go? <sup>20</sup> Can you take each to its home? Do you know how to get there? <sup>21</sup> But of course you know all this! For you were born before it was all created, and you are so very experienced!

east wind? <sup>25</sup>“Who created a channel for the torrents of rain? Who laid out the path for the lightning? <sup>26</sup>Who makes the rain fall on barren land, in a desert where no one lives? <sup>27</sup>Who sends rain to satisfy the parched ground and make the tender grass spring up? <sup>28</sup>“Does the rain have a father? Who gives birth to the dew? <sup>29</sup>Who is the mother of the ice? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens? <sup>30</sup>For the water turns to ice as hard as rock, and the surface of the water freezes.

<sup>32</sup> Can you direct the constellations through the seasons or guide the Bear with her cubs across the heavens? <sup>33</sup> Do you know the laws of the universe? Can you use them to regulate the earth? <sup>34</sup> “Can you shout to the clouds and make it rain? <sup>35</sup> Can you make lightning appear and cause it to strike as you direct? <sup>36</sup> Who gives intuition to the heart and instinct to the mind? <sup>37</sup> Who is wise enough to count all the clouds? Who can tilt the water jars of heaven <sup>38</sup> when the parched ground is dry and the soil has hardened into clods? <sup>39</sup> “Can you stalk prey for a lioness and satisfy the young lions’ appetites <sup>40</sup> as they lie in their dens or crouch in the thicket? <sup>41</sup> Who provides food for the ravens when their young cry out to God and wander about in hunger?

The series of questions continue thru 39 then in 40

Job 40 <sup>1</sup>Then the Lord said to Job, <sup>2</sup> “Do you still want to argue with the Almighty? You are God’s critic, but do you have the answers?”

<sup>3</sup> Then Job replied to the Lord, <sup>4</sup> “I am nothing—how could I ever find the answers? I will cover my mouth with my hand.

<sup>5</sup> I have said too much already. I have nothing more to say.”

Job 42 <sup>1</sup> Then Job replied to the Lord: <sup>2</sup> “I know that you can do anything, and no one can stop you. <sup>3</sup> You asked, ‘Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorance?’ It is I —and I was talking about things I knew nothing about, things far too wonderful for me. <sup>4</sup> You said, ‘Listen and I will speak! I have some questions for you, and you must answer them.’ <sup>5</sup> I had only heard about you before, but now I have seen you with my own eyes. <sup>6</sup> I take back everything I said, and I sit in dust and ashes to show my repentance.”
